BECOME THE LIGHT YOU WERE BORN TO BE

In ClearFlame, we invite you to explore the principles of creation and gain a greater understanding of how the mechanics of life actually work. We would like to assist you to move into your full power and creativity in your unique universe.

The ClearFlame training creates a field of exploration and insight which allows you to become clearer about what is most important to you. Participating in this training gives you opportunities to discover the foundations that your life is currently built on and gives you the skills, the insights and the tools for any changes you wish to make.

This training is a result of over 15 years of extensive exploring and experience with the world of renowned teachers, modalities and traditions. The exercises are simple, easy to understand and assimilate. They are non-confrontational and there is plenty of time for integration and personal reflection. Your training will be like no one else's because of your unique templates and mental/emotional framework. This training customizes itself to your interests and exploration. You get to make it your own.

Come be part of this purely experiential training and explore your own visions, beliefs, and limitations. You will leave with new tools with which to orchestrate your life and will find yourself extremely empowered to transform and reconstruct your life exactly as you want it. ClearFlame is for men and women at any stage of life and experience.
